

CRMLS Connect shuts down permanently on 5/31

Act now if you want to keep your CRMLS Connect data

Our records indicate you may have activated an account with CRMLS Connect, an MLS search platform that is currently available to you at no extra cost via CRMLS.

On May 31st, 2022, CRMLS Connect will retire as a CRMLS core product.

We want to set clear expectations by being transparent and direct. When CRMLS Connect retires, it will disappear completely and permanently. All functions, services, and exclusive data (including your personal settings, messages, and any proprietary contact info) will become inaccessible, and neither CRMLS nor any other entity will offer this product in any way after its retirement date.

CRMLS Connect does not have a bulk export feature. If you want to save anything you can only access through your CRMLS Connect account, you must manually back up your data before 5/31. (This retirement does not affect your primary MLS platform. All your listings, history, roster information, client contacts, etc., are secure.)

What are my alternatives?

We offer products with similar features at no extra cost.

- For MLS search in a universal agent/client interface, we recommend Cloud MLX or your MLS system's client portal*

- For client activity tracking features, we recommend Cloud Streams or auto-email functionality through your MLS system
- For mobile MLS search and client collaboration, we recommend our mobile apps, including the CRMLS App, MLS-Touch, and the responsive mobile web versions of your MLS client portals*
