Find out more about resources and upcoming webinars below

In less than two weeks, Southland Regional AOR becomes a fully participating member of CRMLS – we're looking forward to having you with us!

Before the full launch on 5/2, we want to make sure you're aware of some new services that will be available to you as part of CRMLS, including our Educational resources.

When CRMLS says it empowers real estate professionals to succeed, it's not just empty sales-talk. Our Education department exists to help every user learn anything they need to achieve their goals – in the way that works best for them. Our extensive and thorough Educational department services include:

Virtual Webinars

Register for live webinars covering topics such as optimizing your searches, product solution training, rules and policies, and more – all at no additional cost.

AOR & BOR-wide training

Learn with your local colleagues about the issues and skills most pertinent to your Association or Board.

Requested training

Complimentary virtual or in-person training at your office or a virtual 1-to-1 session with one of our CRMLS System Trainers.

CRMLS is also hosting two webinars specifically for SRAR membership to answer any questions you have about educational resources, your new MLS, and more. Registration is free, but space is limited, so make sure you sign up ASAP:

Tuesday, 4/25 @ 2:00 PM PT
Monday, 5/1 @ 10:00 AM PT
