

Seller's market? Learn how using RatePlug can show your buyers affordability options

Attend this quick webinar to learn how to use RatePlug's mortgage information

Many buyers are shy of today's market, citing rising interest rates and tight inventory that make every home seem impossibly over budget. Coaxing buyers into considering this market can be hard – but RatePlug can help.

A core product for CRMLS users, RatePlug gives accurate mortgage information and payment estimates that are specific to every listing you share with your buyers through the MLS system. Agents can choose their preferred lenders and receive accurate financial data they can rely on. Armed with this information, buyers will know exactly what a property costs and then can make an informed decision.

Join Rob Springer, Marketing Director/Partner at RatePlug, for a quick 15-minute overview of all the great features the free tool can offer.
