CubiCasa offers user-friendly tools for creating floor plans of your listed properties. Simply download the app to your phone, then use your phone to scan a walkthrough of the property. CubiCasa will take the data from your scan and, within 24 hours<sup>2</sup>, convert it to a floor plan you can easily upload onto the MLS.

You will be able to access CubiCasa from your CRMLS REcenterhub dashboard. Navigate to your complete list of user applications by clicking the plus (+) icon and locate the CubiCasa tile. Clicking it will take you to CubiCasa's site, where you'll be able to set up an account. Don't forget to click the star icon under the tile to add it to your favorite dashboard tiles:

Basic 2D floor plans are free of charge and include room dimensions and estimated total square footage<sup>3</sup>. Additional add-ons with more information will be available to CRMLS users at a 25% off discount.

We at CRMLS are excited to bring you this new core product solution and look forward to seeing your real estate business elevated with CubiCasa's capabilities. Thank you for your continued support.
