As of today, October 23, the Homesnap app has been updated to the Homes Pro app, an agent-friendly home search platform.

Please bear in mind that this update comes from Homesnap itself: All elements of Homesnap will forward to the Homes Pro app or redirect to Homes.com, regardless of whether or not you're a CRMLS user. This follows multiple MLSs having already made the transition from Homesnap to Homes Pro.

If you relied upon Homesnap and are looking for a replacement, then please review the comparable apps on each MLS system:
