

What's new from this October

Our monthly catchup with our users

It's been another busy month this October at CRMLS! Let's catch up on all that's been happening.

Create Floor Plans with Your Phone with CubiCasa

Following an announcement earlier this month, CRMLS now offers CubiCasa, a user-friendly tool for creating floor plans, as the latest, no-cost core product. Users only need to download the app to their phone, scan a walkthrough of the property, and send the scan to CubiCasa to convert it to a floor plan. Basic floor plans are available at no cost, and CRMLS members have a special 25% discount on upgrades and add-ons. To find out more, register for a comprehensive webinar of CubiCasa's benefits on Wednesday, November 8.

Local Logic Integration Offers Hyper-Local Neighborhood Insights

Local Logic, a location insights data provider, is now fully integrated in Flexmls mobile and the Paragon Collaboration Center, with Flexmls desktop and Matrix integrations coming soon. Local Logic delivers information about neighborhood demographics and local character, such as noise levels, school info, walkability scores, and more.

Homesnap is Now Homes Pro

The Homes Pro app, powered by Homes.com, replaced Homesnap earlier this month. If you were a Homesnap user your login and information has carried over to Homes Pro. Take a look at our app comparison charts to see how the Homes Pro App or our other mobile product solutions can benefit your business.
