Videos are valuable assets when it comes to promoting your listings, but integrating with third-party video platforms can make having them difficult. WellcomeMat, the latest no-cost, core product integrating to CRMLS Matrix on Tuesday, November 28, makes hosting videos simple and quick.

WellcomeMat is the video platform designed for real estate. By integrating into the MLS, you can edit and manage property videos right from Matrix — no outside linking required. In addition, WellcomeMat has a host of video editing and enhancement features to make them more engaging. For example, chaptering lets you create shortcuts in your video sorted by room, household features, or whatever else you may choose.
