An error led to a large number of messages regarding old reports

The issue has since been addressed, and we apologize for the inconvenience

Late last week and over the weekend, while CRMLS staff was doing some routine data archiving and restoration, an error led to the sending of emails regarding old and completed compliance cases. We realize that, for some, this could have resulted in receiving number of emails, and we apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Our staff has resolved the matter, and you should only receive relevant case emails from here on out.

Thank you for your support and understanding as we work to prevent issues like this from happening again in the future.
