

Get noticed with easy multi-platform exposure

Brand yourself in Matrix, MLS-Touch, and OneHome — all at the same time

When you're trying to secure new leads and prospects, having an identifiable brand as a real estate professional is vital. With the brand-new Matrix Branding Center, you can ensure your preferred logo, color scheme, and other assets are widely visible across functions and platforms, including MLS-Touch, OneHome, and Matrix emails. When you have a clear and consistent brand identity, you portray yourself as ready to offer expert assistance to clients and prospects.

Getting started with the Branding Center is easy – when logged into your Matrix system, you can access it via either the Settings page or in the drop-down menu under your name.

Ready to get started? See how to make full use of the Branding Center in our quick reference guide.

We hope this new feature helps promote your business better than ever, and thank you for your continued support.
