

Carter and CRMLS stand in favor of the CCP

Read the full piece in the link below

CRMLS is committed to full transparency. In fact, it's one of the Redefined Values we're emphasizing this year as part of our renewed commitment to help all brokers, agents, and real estate professionals best convey their value.

To elaborate on what exactly that level of openness means for CRMLS users and why it's so important to maintain, CRMLS CEO Art Carter wrote about his strong stance in favor of the Clear Cooperation Policy (CCP) in a recently published op-ed, which we've made available for anyone to read. We encourage you to read it to understand where CRMLS stands on the matter of sharing listing information, the behind-the-scenes demands made by some brokerages, and how CCP benefits both professionals and consumers alike.
