

Get started capturing leads and building your network

The Nestfully app nurtures relations and builds your business all at once

CRMLS is proud to introduce the brand new Nestfully app, the do-it-all listing platform and communication app built by the MLS and designed especially for agents. As a CRMLS user, you can get Nestfully at no additional cost of any kind – that means no subscription fees, referral fees, or any other of the nickel-and-diming you might get from other real estate apps.

The new Nestfully app comes redesigned and fully loaded with features that provide real value to you and your clients:

- Manage buyers and leads on the go
- Gain insights into client behavior
- Search and share listings
- Message and collaborate with clients and other agents

But that's not all Nestfully can do. There are more great features coming soon, including CRM integration, boundary walk, and an agent-assisted valuation model.

Ready to grow your client relationships and your business? Download the app and invite your clients to join you now!
